

Submission Guidelines for Introduction

To submit an Introduction for consideration in Mobility Humanities, please adhere to the following guidelines:

1. The introduction for the Special Issue, Interview, and Dialogue should be no less than 2,000 words (including Abstract, Keywords, footnotes and Works Cited).
2. Provide a separate cover page which gives the title of the introduction, complete contact information for the author (full name, affiliation, and email address), a total word count, and additional information such as funding and ORCID (if applicable). Affiliations and email addresses will be posted online for indexing/abstracting purposes. For the title, please use bold with an initial capital letter for any proper nouns.
3. The first page of the text of the manuscript should have only the title of the manuscript at the top, abstract and keywords. The name of the author(s) should NOT be included.
4. The manuscript should follow the MLA style. View the Mobility Humanities Manuscript Style Guidelines to ensure your manuscript conforms to this reference style.

Authors should submit their work through ScholarOne:
